THE MINORITY CEO SUMMIT 2013 MIAMI

April 18-19, 2013 * Biltmore Hotel * Coral Gables, FL

Conference Co-Chairs Governor Jeb Bush and Secretary Carlos Gutiérrez

Visitors: 489 Executives from Local, Statewide, National & Puerto Rico

SPECIAL HISTORICAL REPORT

MINORITY CEO SUMMIT 2013

Empowering Hispanic Leadership | April 18–19, 2013
The Biltmore Hotel | Coral Gables, Florida

The U.S. Minority Chamber of Commerce proudly hosted its Minority CEO Summit 2013 on Thursday, April 18, and Friday, April 19, at the prestigious Biltmore Hotel in Coral Gables, Florida. As part of the Chamber's signature annual programs and its 2013 initiative to empower Hispanic leadership, this bilingual, two-day conference brought together distinguished political figures, business executives, community leaders, and representatives of national organizations.

The Summit represented another important milestone in the Chamber's commitment to strengthening Hispanic leadership, promoting economic development, and creating meaningful connections between the business community and influential national leaders.

THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 2013

Official Welcome Reception | 5:30 PM

The opening reception welcomed distinguished guests and prominent leaders from government, business, and public service. Among the distinguished personalities participating in the event were:

Co-Chair-Hon. Carlos Gutierrez

Co-Chair Hon. Jeb Bush

Former U.S. Treasurer Rosario Marin

Puerto Rico Governor Luis Fortuno

Their participation contributed to an exceptional gathering dedicated to leadership, economic opportunity, and the advancement of the Hispanic business community.

13 Years of Building Bridges. One Future. One America

THE 6TH ANNUAL FAMILY REUNION CONFERENCE

Nearly 500 Business and Community Leaders United

The Chamber celebrated another significant milestone with its 6th Annual Family Reunion Conference, bringing together nearly 500 executive leaders from its membership, business partners, and friends, along with community leaders representing coalition members and other national organizations.

The conference addressed some of the most pressing issues affecting Hispanic communities and businesses across the United States, with particular attention to Immigration Reform and other major economic challenges shaping the future of Hispanic America.

FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 2013

Congressional Leadership and Business Perspectives | 9:15 AM

The second day opened at 9:15 AM with a distinguished panel of political and business leaders, including:

Congressman Mario Díaz-Balart – U.S. Representative, Florida

Congressman David Valadao – U.S. Representative, California

Mr. Ruben Barrales – President, San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce

Former US Surgeon General Antonia Novello US Director SBA Jovita Carranza Harriet V. Carter Liasion to Ileana Ross Lehtinen

Continued with policy panel: ECONOMY & EDUCATION – SMALLER SMARTER GOVERNMENT FOR A BRIGHTER FUTURE with dynamic speakers, Governor Jeb Bush, Secretary Carlos Gutiérrez, Joanna Acocella, Vice President Federal Relations, Apollo Group and Mr.Cesar Conde, President, Univisión and presented by Doug Mayorga,National President of U.S. Minority Chamber of Commerce.

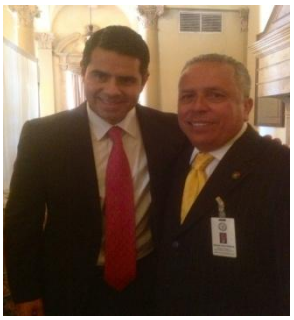

The discussions analyzed the current state of Hispanic inclusion and focused on three of the most pressing policy matters for Hispanics – the economy, education, and immigration. The Minority Chamber of Commerce is compromised in continue to promote diversity and inclusion across all sectors of the United States and Puerto Rico for the Hispanic Community Leadership.

NEW FRIENDS AND PARTNERS AT THE U.S MINORITY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Donna Shalala, President of UM

Cesar Conde, President of Univision

Closing Speech

The program provided an opportunity to exchange perspectives on immigration reform, economic development, Hispanic leadership, and the role of the business community in shaping national priorities.

The U.S Minority Chamber of Commerce extends its appreciation to all distinguished speakers, business executives, members, partners, and guests whose participation made the 2013 Summit a memorable milestone in our organization's history.

Mr. Conde, Mr. Bush & Doug
Telemundo's President

A private conversation
U.S Secretary of Commerce

Rosario Marin
Former U.S Treasurer

Ruben Barrales -President
San Diego Chamber of Commerce